This is an aerial photograph of a residential neighborhood in Leipzig, Germany. A large, irregularly shaped green plot is highlighted with a thick red border. This plot is situated between Dr. Krause Straße to the north and a diagonal boundary to the south. To the east of the red-outlined plot is a wooded area labeled 'Flur 10'. The surrounding urban area is densely packed with buildings, many of which are outlined in yellow. Numerous lot numbers are visible throughout the map. Key streets include Augustenstraße, Querstraße, Kaltestraße, Franzstraße, and Leipziger Straße. The Martinikirche is located in the bottom right corner. The map also shows various other features like parking lots, smaller green spaces, and utility lines.
